We further process, to the extent necessary for the performance of the contract, personal data that we have received from other companies or from other third parties in a permissible manner (e.g. for the execution of orders, for the performance of contracts or on the basis of consent given by you). Relevant personal data are personal details (name, address and other contact details). In addition, this may also be information data, data from the fulfillment of our contractual obligations, bank data, as well as other data comparable with the aforementioned categories.

1. purposes and legal bases of the processing operations

- Insofar as you have given us consent to process personal data for certain purposes (e.g. newsletter dispatch), the lawfulness of this processing is based on your consent.
- Consent given can be revoked at any time. This also applies to the revocation of declarations of consent given to us prior to the application of the GDPR, i.e. prior to May 25, 2018.
- The revocation shall only apply with effect for the future. Processing that took place before the revocation is not affected.

1.4. processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject (Article 6(1)(C) DSGVO). As a company, we are subject to various legal obligations in the context of tax and social security monitoring and reporting requirements. Further requirements may arise from the German Disabled Persons Act (Schwerbehindertengesetz), trade associations, fraud and money laundering prevention, compliance with the requirements of the EU Anti-Terrorism Regulation, and others.

2. recipients or categories of recipients of the data (if a data transfer takes place)

- 2.1. Within the company, those departments receive your data that require it to fulfill our contractual and legal obligations.
